SUBJECT : Conduct of Mid-Year Program Review and Evaluation

DATE : October 19, 2016

1. In pursuance to DepEd Order No. 23, s. 2016 entitled "School Calendar for School Year 2016-2017" and its Implementing Guidelines, as well as DepEd Order No. 36, s. 1997 RE: Mid-Year Program Review and Evaluation, simultaneously with the observance of the Semestral Break is the conduct of the Mid-Year Program Review and Evaluation (MPRE) in every school on October 24 – 28, 2016. The activity primarily aims at:
 - a. Assessing the progress attained in the implementation of educational programs in the school;
 - b. Reviewing/Assessing individual and collective performance of teachers in connection with individual and school targets;
 - c. Conducting In-Service Training (INSET) activities in support of teachers' continuing professional development.
2. In view hereof, schools are directed to prepare an action plan stipulating therein the appropriate activities to undertake for the realization of the aforementioned objectives, implement the said plan, and submit accomplishment report.
3. Public Schools District Supervisors are advised to extend technical assistance to their assigned schools particularly in organizing activities for MPRE. To emphasize, each activity must be instrumental in the realization of the above-mentioned objectives.
4. Likewise, both Education Program Supervisors and Public Schools District Supervisors are tasked to monitor the conduct of MPRE on specified dates.
5. For information, guidance and compliance.
