CLIMATE CHANGE LITERACY ORIENTATION FOR THE SCHOOLS DIVISION OFFICE PERSONNEL

To: Division Chiefs
Heads of Sections
Unit Heads
All Schools Division Office Personnel

1. To protect fragile ecosystems and to build sustainable communities that are resilient to climate change—including extreme weather and climate events—a climate-literate citizenry is essential.
2. In connection to this quite remarkable environmental issue, the DepED Digos City Division thru its Human Resource Development Section and Disaster Risk Reduction and Management are initiating a Climate Change Literacy Orientation for the Schools Division Office Personnel on November 29, 2017 (Wednesday) at the Arnaldo's Hotel and Restaurant. The program aims to understand the essential principles of Earth's climate system, know how to assess scientifically credible information about climate, communicate about climate and climate change in a meaningful way, and is able to make informed and responsible decisions with regard to actions that may affect climate.
3. Meals and snacks of the participants shall be charged to HRTD Funds while travel expenses and other incidental expenses of the participants are chargeable against local funds subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
4. For information and compliance.
