Dear Atty. Escobarte,

Greetings!

The Ateneo de Davao University Publication Office has recently published O Susana! Untold Stories of Martial Law in Davao which contains forty-five (45) essays by thirty-four (34) authors who talked about their experiences during Martial Law. The personal stories of church and social development workers are of historical significance as they tell of actual events during the dark years of the Marcos Dictatorship.

In the light of the recent announcement of the Department of Education (DepEd) "to enrich and allow more in-depth discussions on Philippine history, including the martial law period," the O Susana book is timely indeed in providing an important resource for use not only in the Araling Lipunan (Social Studies) Grades 5 and 6 but also in other Grade levels in the new K to 12 program.

Sr. Regina Pili, RGS says of the book: "Reading the articles brought me back in time to the Martial Law days when speaking up to protect the God-given rights of persons was a crime and could land you in jail, tortured and dying, and finally... DEAD!"

The book offers many stories that the teacher can use in his/her lessons in enlightening our young students about Martial Law, particularly about the unbridled corruption and horrendous human rights violations that we as a people should never forget and should never allow to happen again.

In this connection, we would like to seek the endorsement of DepEd Region XI for the O Susana book and to request it to encourage both the public and private school libraries to obtain copies of the book for the use of their students.

The price of the book is P400 per copy. Bulk purchase price for 20 copies is P350.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

DR. IMACULADA D. ILO
