Dear DR. BATOON _____ :

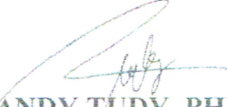

Cor Jesu College, in partnership with Nagoya University Graduate School of International Development, will hold the 2nd International Conference on Philippine Politics and Culture: Mindanao Perspectives on February 15, 2019 at CJC HR Training Center, Sacred Heart Avenue, Digos City, Davao del Sur.

Drawing from the notion of a contested democracy, it can be argued that Philippine politics cannot be simplified into the mere conflict of classes, but rather, it is one that is rooted in history and the struggles of a people in search of meaning and recognition. It is the aim of this conference to gather local as well as international scholars to discuss and deepen our understanding of culture and politics in the Philippines.

The conference fee is Php 1,000.00 (20 USD) for non-presenter and Php 1,500.00 (30 USD) for paper presenter. For those who are interested to join or/and to present their papers, abstract can be submitted through the conference email- icppcresearch@gmail.com or to roger.bayod@gmail.com.

Sincerely yours,
