1. Digital transformation in the education sector has implied the involvement of sustainable management, in order to adapt to the changes imposed by new technologies. The Department of Education's challenges on the scourge of Covid-19 has brought about drastic changes in the delivery of public basic education system. These changes concomitantly paved the way for the introduction of different learning delivery modalities in order to sustain the crucial provision of basic education amidst the pandemic to comply with guidelines set forth by the Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF) on Covid – 19 with articulations from the Department of Education to be contextualized according to the unique needs of learners in different areas of the archipelago
2. It is in these parameters that DepEd-Digos City Division supports the exponential trend on digitization, as an imperative to find a better way to sustain learning in this time of pandemic without sacrificing the impact of voluminous paper production to nature and the environment, where the alternative to modular learning is found in the conversion of paper modules into digitized materials.
3. In this connection, the Office is calling for a meeting among the aforementioned personnel on May 19, 2021 at 9:00am to initially discuss on the technical and administrative implementation aspects of the project.
4. For information, attendance and participation.
