3. In support of the School-Based Management (SBM) Implementation, the SBM Sub-Committees shall provide technical assistance upon invitation during capacity building and in all SBM Level of Practice (LoP) Assessments:
4. The SBM Committee shall oversee the overall SBM implementation with the following specific functions to wit;
 - Identify the school recipients of SBM grants based on criteria set;
 - Monitor and evaluate SBM grants utilization;
 - Awareness building/advocacy;
 - Conduct training, orientation; and
 - Provide Technical Assistance to the schools pertaining to project planning, assistance in resource generation; submission of required reports, supervision and monitoring of project implementation, and documentation, evaluation, and dissemination of lessons learned.
5. This Memorandum rescinds the previous Division Memorandum No. 903 series of 2019 issued on October 15, 2019 re: Designation Order: New Composition of the School-Based Management (SBM) Task Force and SBM Sub Task Force.
6. This designation takes effect upon receipt hereof until revoked or rescinded for a just cause.
7. For the information, guidance, and compliance with, by all concerned.
