Subject: PARTICIPATION TO THE CHILD PROTECTION
SPECIALIZATION COURSE

Date : November 8th 2022

Attached is the Memorandum from the Office of the Undersecretary for Governance and Field Operations dated October 24, 2022, entitled "Call for Participants to the Child Protection Specialization Course".

The Department of Education through the Child Protection Unit will conduct the Child Protection (CP) Specialization Course which aims to prepare qualified and committed child protection specialists who will be equipped with adequate knowledge and skills and imbued with the desired attitudinal orientation to discharge their responsibilities, in the process providing affected children with a range of protected services demanded by case management and in consonance with existing protocols for child protection within the school system.

At the end of the Child Protection Specialization Course, the participants are expected to:

1. Increase self-confidence, clarify values about their child protection orientation, seal their commitment, and set a positive and inspirational climate for working together;
2. Understand the performance of one's role as a Child Protection Specialist and appreciate a global and national vision for children;
3. Identify the salient features of DepEd's Child Protection Policy and related issuances and internalize the policy and guidelines in protecting children in schools from abuse, violence, exploitation, discrimination, bullying, and other forms of abuse;
4. Analyze various complex cases and define actions in facilitating a child-centered management of abuse and exploitation in the school setting; and
5. Create a strategic case referral and reporting system that will be enforced by the Child Protection Committees (CPCs).
