INTERNATIONAL WOMENS' PEACE GROUP

Cristy C. Epe
Schools Division Superintendent

April 4, 2022

Dear Ms, Cristy

Greetings from the IWPG Family!

I hereby write to introduce our organization International Women's Peace Group, a non-profit NGO organization under the South Korea Ministry of Gender Equality and Family. It is also registered in the UN DGC- Department of Global Communications and has Special consultative status in ECOSOC - UN Economic and Social Council. IWPG has 100 branches and 230 cooperative organizations in 52 countries.

As we believe that every human being has the right to live a happy and peaceful life, we aim to promote peace to prevent different elements that presently threaten the international community. Also, to create an alliance to share happiness, support each other in the name of peace, to cease the war, and to make people realize world peace through the heart of a mother.

Many women sympathize with the mother's heart to protect their children from war and to leave peace as a legacy. We see the world as a place where we can share this peace. We aim to create a happy world for all our families through maternal love, sacrifice and a spirit of service. IWPG has three initiatives to make this aim for peace happen, the three initiatives are the following:

- Legislate Peace Campaign
- Plant Peace
- Women Peace Education

As a women leader like you we believe that we can work together and spread peace. We look forward to an amazing relationship and great success together!

Sincerely,
Juliana Layos
