Dear Fr. Roflo:

This is in reference to your letter requesting this Office for the approval to conduct a vocation campaign during the months of January to March 2024.

This Office interposes no objection to your request provided the following conditions are met:

1. Proper coordination with the school head is arranged ahead of time.
2. Students' participation in the said activity shall be voluntary and subject to compliance with the non-disruption of classes policy as stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005, titled Instituting Measures to Increase Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.
3. It will not cause disturbance to on-going classes.
4. Time allotted for the said activity is 15-20 minutes only.
5. No government fund will be utilized.

Very truly yours,

For and in the absence of the Schools Division Superintendent

Good afternoon, ma'am/sir. My name is Rev. Fr. Roxie Roflo from the Order of Clerics Regular of Saint Paul - Barnabite Fathers. This is an order that was established by Saint Anthony Mary Zaccaria in 1530, in Milan, Italy. As the vocation director of our congregation, I'm reaching out to you today. We would like to request your permission to organize a vocation campaign in your division. I've included our letter with this message for your reference. Thank you, and may God's blessings be with you.

Dearest Superintendent,

I trust this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. I am Rev. Fr. Roxie M. Roflo, CRSP, the vocation director of the Barnabite Fathers, CRSP. We represent the Order of Clerics Regular of Saint Paul-Barnabite Fathers, founded by Saint Anthony Mary Zaccaria in 1530 in Milan, Italy.

I am reaching out to request your approval for organizing a vocation promotion event on behalf of the CLERICS REGULAR OF SAINT PAUL in the public high schools under your Division's jurisdiction. As a congregation committed to introducing the consecrated lifestyle of priestly vocation and brotherhood to Junior-Senior High students, we deem it essential to engage with young minds and encourage them to contemplate a vocation in harmony with our principles and values.

To this end, we are planning a series of vocation promotion sessions during the month of January to March 2024. Our goal is to provide students with information about our congregation, its mission, and the opportunities it offers for spiritual and personal development. We believe that by engaging with students at the high school level, we can foster an environment that encourages thoughtful consideration of a vocation within our congregation.

Recognizing the importance of obtaining proper authorization for such activities, we assure you that we will adhere to all guidelines and regulations set forth by your Division. Additionally, we are committed to coordinating with school administrators to minimize any disruption to the normal school routine.

We kindly request your permission to proceed with this initiative and would be grateful for any guidance or requirements you may have regarding the vocation promotion events. We are open to a meeting at your convenience to discuss this matter further if necessary.

Thank you in advance for considering our request. Our religious family acknowledges your generosity and trust towards our congregation. We, for our part, assure you of our constant prayers and remembrance.

Sincerely,

Rev. F. Roxie M. Roflo, CRSP

Vocation Director
