Dear Ma'am Estacio:

Greetings Ka Dagyaw!

The Dagyaw Open Government Town hall Meetings consistently become a platform for building mutual trust between the government and the Filipino People by providing an open, neutral, and protected space for dialogue on key national and local issues.

For this year, and as part of heading the marching orders of the President in his recently concluded State of the Nation Address (SONA), the DILG XI, Department of Budget and Management XI, Philippine Information Agency XI, and Kasilak Development Foundation, Incorporated, will conduct the Dagyaw Open Government Town Hall Meeting on August 16, 23024, 1:00-5:00pm at the City Gymnasium, Digos City, Davao del Sur.

The Dagyaw will gather 1,500 civil society organization leaders, barangay officials and functionaries from different parts of Region XI to discuss and interface with key national government officials on enhancing people's participation and pursuing economic development and barangay reforms.

In this regard, as a value added showcase activity for the Regional Dagyaw is the conduct of Back-to-Back Serbisyo Caravan which includes "Blood Revolution" Campaign in partnership with Philippine Red Cross Davao del Sur Chapter. The campaign is expected to draw 500 blood donors.

To muster the target number of donors, can we request for 30 Blood Donors from the DepEd Digos City Division Personnel to be enlisted as major Blood Donor Institution in the Regional Launching of Joint Memorandum Circular 2020-02 Community Mobilization for the Voluntary Blood and Convalescent Plasma Donation Program of the National Government on August 16, 2024 STARTS AT 6:30AM.

The DILG Davao del Sur thru its Local Governance Provincial Resource Center continue to establish strong partnership in priming core value of sharing community as a strategic direction in achieving for a caring, collaborative community towards efforts to save lives though revitalizing campaign on Blood Donation.

Dagyaw derived from the Hiligaynon term which means Bayanihan or togetherness aim to provide an open, neutral and protected space for dialogue among government and non-government stakeholders.
