SUBJECT : PRODUCTION AND REDEVELOPMENT OF SLMS ANCHORED
ON THE MATATAG CURRICULUM

DATE : May 13, 2024

When the global pandemic hit, it forced our schools to close and hence, paved a new landscape for education. During the stretch and period of this pandemic, all schools, through the regional and division leaders, contextualized how they can effectively and efficiently deliver education through the different alternative delivery modalities; one of which is modular instruction using the Self-Learning Modules (SLMs). These were developed by the Field Development teams and quality assured by their respective Quality Assurance teams, as well as the Bureau learning specialists. With this, the educational system persisted and thrived through the collective efforts of the Regional Offices (ROs) and Central Office.

The SLM proved its significance during these trying times; hence, its development remains essential to ensure that all learners, particularly those who are at risk, shall have equal access to basic education. Likewise, it is necessary to note that the SLMs were not simply developed for the sole purpose of addressing the pandemic situation, but also served as an avenue to ensure that quality and accessible education will take place during blended learning or when challenges such as poverty, geographical distance, natural disasters, and poor health condition of learners, all of which are highly inevitable, are encountered.

Now, with the adoption of the MATATAG Curriculum, there is a need to realign the contents of the SLMs with the new curriculum in order to ensure that the needs of today's learners will be met and that the contents of the modules are aligned with the needed basic education competencies, knowledge, and skills.

In view of the foregoing, please be advised that the production and redevelopment of SLMs aligned with the MATATAG Curriculum for Grades 1 to 10 shall be shared among all regions. Relative to this, the learning area/s assigned to your region is Makabansa and Language for all grade levels.

For this purpose, the Bureau of Learning Delivery (BLD) shall be orienting your Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM) and Learning Resource (LR) focal persons for the development timelines, new SLM instructional design, technical specifications, and other needed details.

The directly released Fiscal Years (FY) 2023 and 2024 Flexible Learning Options-Learning Resources (FLO-LRs) fund may be utilized for this purpose. The region shall prioritize the production and redevelopment of SLMs for Grades 1, 4, and 7. However, should you have excess and savings from your FYs 2023 and 2024 FLO funds, the same may be used for other grade levels.

In the event that the RO's budget is not sufficient, this Office shall provide additional funding assistance and further download funds for the above-mentioned purpose.

For guidance, the activities related to the redevelopment and production of SLMs include the following:

- a. Activities in the actual development and quality assurance of SLMs as guided by the existing ADM Learning Resource Standards;
- b. Procurement of printing and delivery services of SLMs, or procurement of approved SLMs;
- c. Capability-building activities for members of the Development and Quality Assurance Teams involved in the development and production of SLMs;
- d. Activities related to the digitization or conversion of SLMs in its electronic or interactive versions, or conversion to different accessible formats;
- e. Hiring the services of experts for SLM development and/or quality assurance; and/or
- f. Other related activities leading to the development and production of SLMs.

Should you have any concerns and queries, you may email Ms. Angelika D. Jabines of BLD at angelika.d.jabines@deped.gov.ph

For information and appropriate action.
