Pursuant to Malacañang Proclamation 247 dated September 2, 2002, the month of September of every year is declared as Development Policy Research Month (DPRM) to promote and draw nationwide awareness on the importance of policy research in the formulation of national development plans, programs, and policies.

Anchoring to this year's theme, "Securing a Future for All by Growing a Resilient Middle Class", or in Filipino, "Pagpapalawak ng Matatag na Middle Class tungo sa Pagtiyak ng Kinabukasan para sa Lahat", activities celebrating the DPRM this coming September will highlight opportunities and challenges in expanding the Filipino middle class in the face of emerging global megatrends that can either accelerate growth of further widen disparities. Focus shall be on multi-pronged strategies needed to provide opportunities for expansion and new wealth creation, transforming the middle class into a more resilient driver of social good.

In line with this, Regional Offices are invited to participate in this year's celebration through the following:

1. Display of physical banner of DPRM 2024 on your office premises or the electronic banner on your official website and social media pages. The template can be accessed through <https://bit.ly/2024dprmbanner>. The banner is currently available in Filipino, English and in other major Philippine languages.
2. Encourage DepEd personnel to visit the DPRM website (<http://dprm.pids.gov.ph>) and follow social media pages of Philippine Institute for Development Studies (PIDS) at <https://www.facebook.com/PIDS.PH/>, https://x.com/PIDS_PH, <https://www.youtube.com/@PIDSPHL>. Reposting and sharing of DPRM promotional videos, infographics, and related announcements to your social media pages are encouraged. These materials can be downloaded from the DPRM website and PIDS social media pages.
3. Join the DPRM events in September, such as the 10th Annual Public Policy Conference (APPC) on September 19 and the 10th Mindanao Policy Research
