Dear Dr. Farnazo:

Greetings! We hope this letter finds you well. We are the Social Sciences Research and Extension Institute, the extension arm of the UP Baguio that offers social sciences and philosophy teaching and/or research training services to educators, graduate students, and development workers from government offices and non-government organizations. This midyear (July-August 2025), we would like to invite the members of your institution to participate in our offered training packages, which include the following:

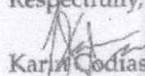

- Quantitative Data Analysis
- Participatory Action Research: Gendered Agency in Development
- Basic Museology Training
- Doing Historical Research
- Teaching Cordillera History

If these topics interest you, may we kindly ask for your assistance in disseminating the Interest Check Google Form to members of your institution? The information gathered in this form will greatly help us in calibrating our training packages for the needs of our participants. Those who answer this form will be updated regarding registration and payment details once these are available.

The form may be answered through the following link: <https://forms.gle/sCwedeZkMiSztDRBy6> or by scanning the QR code in the corner of this letter. The form will remain open until April 16, 2025; beyond this date, interested individuals are invited to like and follow our Facebook page for further updates.

For other inquiries or institutional partnership requests for other training topics in social sciences and philosophy, we can be reached through our official email address (ssrei.upbaguio@up.edu.ph) or through our Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/CSGREI>).

Respectfully,

Karina Codias Bangsoy
