Dear Superintendent Estacio:

The Civil Service Commission Regional Office XI is pleased to announce its biggest face to face learning and development event in 2025 – the Leaders & HR Colloquium with the theme “Government HR-Leadership Nexus in Davao Region: Aligning Talent Management with Current Updates in the Civil Service Commission.” on May 28-29, 2025 at the Grand Regal Hotel, Lanang, Davao City.

This two-day event will bring together government HR practitioners, leaders, and officials to engage in meaningful discussions, share best practices, and co-create solutions aimed at building a more resilient and future-ready Civil Service. We will address the evolving needs of the public sector, particularly in aligning talent management with post-pandemic updates, while fostering collaborative leadership and HR excellence across the Davao Region. This will cover the following talking points to propel each one’s leadership instinct:

Promote Regional Resilience and Growth – Tailor HR and leadership initiatives to address the unique challenges and opportunities in the Davao Region, ensuring inclusive, equitable, and sustainable development.	Dr. Nelly Limbadan Ateneo de Davao University, (Industrial) Psychology Department
PRIME-HRM Level III	Director III Sheila G. Acuña CSC - Human Resource Policies & Standards Office
Align Talent Management with Leadership Excellence – Explore strategies for nurturing a resilient and capable workforce while cultivating leadership skills essential for driving innovation and governance in the Davao Region.	Director IV Noreen Boots Gocon-Gragasin CSC - Integrated Records Management Office
Address Current Updates – Discuss the updates, reforms, and guidelines introduced by the CSC to adapt to a rapidly changing workplace, such as flexible work arrangements, digital transformation, and mental health programs.	Asst. Commissioner Ariel G. Ronquillo CSC - Office of the Assistant Commissioner for Legal
Strengthen HR-Leadership Collaboration – Highlight the interconnectedness of HR practices and leadership development in achieving organizational goals and enhancing public service delivery.	Assistant Commissioner Judith A. Dongallo-Chicano CSC- Office of the Assistant Commissioner for Professionalization & Cooperation

Bawat Kawani, Lingkod Bayani
