TO: MELANIE P. ESTACIO
DEPED-OIC CITY SCHOOLS DIVISION SUPT.

Pursuant to Proclamation No. 1204 Declaring the month of June of every year as National Dengue Awareness month the City Health Office of Digos City will be having a series of activities to be done for the whole month of June.

Among these will be recorida, distribution of health advisory posters, flyers and other information materials to households, schools, churches and other public places, curtain soaking, operation kulob and even fumigation in areas with clustered Dengue cases.

Moreover, come June 10, 2025 as its opening Salvo the City Health Office will spearhead a motorcade around the City and a short symposium thereafter.

In this regard we are inviting two representatives from your esteemed office preferably with your own official vehicle to join the above-mentioned motorcade. Assembly will be at the Digos City Gymnasium at 7:30am with the motorcade to kick off at exactly eight o'clock in the morning.

Thank you very much for your continued support on all our Health Programs and more power.

Respectfully yours,
