All Heads of Departments, Bureaus, Offices, and Agencies of the National Government, Including State Universities and Colleges, and Government-Owned and Controlled Corporations; Local Government Units; and All Others Concerned

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are pleased to invite you to the 2025 Executive Development Summit (EDS2025) with the theme: "Turning Policy into Practice: Advancing ESG Integration and Sustainability Reporting in Education, Business, and Government," to be held on August 23, 2025, at Savoy Hotel Manila, Andrews Avenue, Newport City, Pasay City.

EDS2025 will bring together leaders and decision-makers from the education, government, and business sectors to explore practical strategies for integrating Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) principles, strengthening impact measurement, and advancing sustainability reporting. The summit seeks to build institutional capacity in responding to climate, equity, and governance challenges through responsible leadership, cross-sector collaboration, and transparent performance disclosure.

In adherence to the President's directive to place green governance at the forefront of public service, we respectfully request the participation of your relevant officers—particularly those involved in sustainability, planning, development, environmental programs, and public reporting.

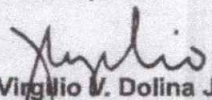

Date/time: 23 August 2025, Saturday, 08:00 am - 05:00 pm
Venue: Savoy Hotel Manila, 101 Andrews Avenue, Newport City, Pasay City
Registration: bit.ly/adrempheds (see link for more details)
Contribution: Php 2,500 for early registration until June 20, 2025, or
Php 2,700 for regular registration until August 1, 2025.

This summit underscores our collective leadership in climate action and our commitment to embedding sustainability in the core of government operations.

The provisional agenda may be accessed through bit.ly/eds2025agenda for your reference. For any inquiries or concerns, you may contact us through the details below.

We look forward to your continued involvement as we move from dialogue to implementation in building more sustainable and resilient institutions.

Sincerely,

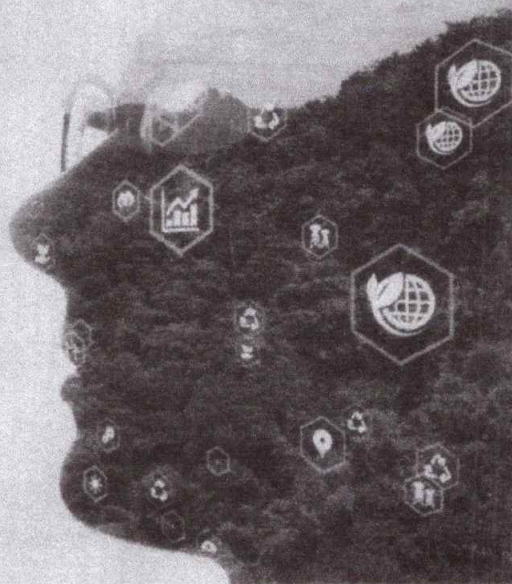

Virgilio V. Dolina Jr.

EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT SUMMIT 2025

Turning Policy into Practice:
Advancing ESG Integration and Sustainability
Reporting in Education, Business, and Government

23 AUGUST 2025 • SAVOY HOTEL MANILA
bit.ly/adrempheds

BACKGROUND

As the world continues to face escalating environmental, social, and governance (ESG) challenges, the need for effective integration and transparent sustainability reporting has never been more urgent. From global climate crises to shifting societal expectations, organizations in education, enterprise, and government must not only develop strong ESG policies but also ensure these policies translate into meaningful action and measurable impact.

The 2025 Executive Development Summit will provide a platform for leaders from across sectors to engage in robust discussions on how to take ESG policy frameworks and translate them into actionable strategies. This summit will focus on the process of policy integration, impact measurement, and sustainability reporting, highlighting the challenges, successes, and evolving best practices across education institutions, corporations, and government entities. The aim is to foster collaboration and share insights that drive sustainable practices while advancing global ESG goals.

OBJECTIVES

1. Equip participants with practical tools and frameworks to integrate ESG policies effectively within their organizations, ensuring long-term sustainability;
2. Provide insights into advanced ESG reporting standards, helping organizations improve transparency, accountability, and alignment with global reporting frameworks;
3. Promote partnerships and joint initiatives across education, business, and government sectors to share knowledge, resources, and best practices for sustainable development;
4. Guide participants in turning ESG policies into actionable and measurable programs, with a focus on overcoming common barriers to implementation; and
5. Prepare leaders to anticipate and navigate future ESG trends, ensuring their organizations stay ahead of evolving sustainability requirements and expectations.

PARTICIPANTS

- School administrators, sustainability officers, faculty, and students
- Business leaders, officers, sustainability officers, and CSR professionals
- Government personnel involved in the development and enforcement of ESG regulations, policies, and sustainability initiatives at local and national levels; and
