Dear Dr. Farnazo:

Greetings!

The University of Southeastern Philippines (USEP), in partnership with the SEAMEO Regional Centre for Special Educational Needs (SEAMEO SEN), will conduct the In-Country Course Training Programme on Holistic Approaches in School Health for Special Educational Needs (SEN) Learners on 6–7 August 2025 at the Teacher Training and Research Center, College of Education, USEP Obrero Campus, Davao City.

This training aims to build the capacity of educators and school leaders in applying holistic approaches to school health for SEN learners. By the end of the course, participants are expected to:

1. Enhance their understanding of the components of a healthy school environment and their impact on SEN learners;
2. Acquire practical strategies for promoting physical health and mental well-being in inclusive classrooms;
3. Learn tools and techniques for addressing common health-related challenges faced by SEN learners;
4. Foster collaboration among educators, parents, and community stakeholders in creating an inclusive and supportive school culture; and
5. Be empowered to develop action plans for implementing holistic school health initiatives.

In this regard, may we respectfully request your endorsement of at least fifty (50) participants, who may include school administrators and teachers involved in early childhood and special needs education. The registration fee is PhP 5,000.00 per participant.

For more information, you may contact Assoc. Prof. Henry C. Encabo, Deputy Director of the Teacher Training and Research Center, at hcencabo@usep.edu.ph or call (082) 227-8192 local 227.

Thank you very much for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

BONIFACIO G. GABALES, JR., Ph.D.
SUC President IV

About the Program

The In-Country Course Training Programme on Holistic Approaches in School Health for Special Educational Needs (SEN) Learners is a joint initiative by the University of Southeastern Philippines (USEP) and SEAMEO SEN. It aims to improve special education in SEAMEO member countries by addressing health-related challenges faced by SEN learners.

The training equips educators and school administrators with practical tools and strategies to create inclusive, healthy learning environments. SEAMEO SEN brings regional expertise and international resources.

This collaboration is designed to empower participants to develop school health initiatives that promote the well-being and inclusion of SEN learners.
