Dear Ma'am Estacio;

Greetings!

President Ferdinand R. Marcos, Jr. has declared every July 17–23 of every year as the National Disability Rights Week (NDRW) Celebration through Proclamation No. 597. He repealed Proclamation No. 361, which had previously been designated as "National Disability Prevention and Rehabilitation (NDPR) Week." This is to ensure full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and freedoms, emphasizing the Philippines' dedication to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD) goal of promoting, protecting, and ensuring the rights and dignity of persons with disabilities.

The Proclamation No. 597 directed all government agencies and instrumentalities, including government-owned or controlled corporations, state universities, and colleges, to observe the celebration. All local government units, non-government organizations, and private sectors are encouraged to observe the same. This year's 47th NDRW celebration theme is "Innovation for Inclusion: Building Inclusive Communities Together".

To create promotional impact and advocacy, we humbly request your office to hang a tarpaulin within your premises and other strategic locations in your respective areas of jurisdiction during NDRWeek (July 17-23, 2025) and for purpose of uniformity, download the official design/layout of streamer/tarpaulin or just visit the National Council on Disability Affairs (NCDA) website, or open this link below:
