Dear Dr. Estacio:

Greetings of peace and goodwill!

The Graduate School of Cor Jesu College, Inc. is currently undertaking a review and enhancement of its academic programs to ensure continued relevance, quality, and responsiveness to the evolving needs of education in both local and national contexts.

In line with this, we are inviting DR. ROWENA M. MAGDAYAO, as one of our valued stakeholders in the Curriculum Evaluation and Improvement Process of the MAEd programs. Her professional insights and her role in the Department of Education will be invaluable in enriching our curriculum with practical, real-world perspectives.

The stakeholder consultation is scheduled on August 8, 2025 at exactly 9 AM, to be held at the Education Simulation Room, Cor Jesu College, Inc. The activity will include a brief presentation of the existing programs and guided discussions focusing on areas for enhancement, alignment with current educational standards, and responsiveness to learner and community needs.

We truly believe your approval will contribute greatly to the development of a more meaningful and effective curriculum for future educators and professionals.

Should you have questions or need further details, please do not hesitate to contact us at vinicesumaljag@g.cjc.edu.ph or 09982266878.

We look forward to your favorable response and presence.

Thank you very much, and may God bless you always.

Sincerely,

MARIA VINICE O. SUMALJAG, LPT, Ph.D
