Our aim is to develop the local artists guided with the right principle and values in presenting the beautiful cultures of Mindanao in various arts platforms, more importantly to raise awareness in cultural sensitivity in crafting legislative policies and or strengthen existing laws in protecting the entire festival industry. The activity is also timely as we prepare to open our doors for both domestic and international tourist thus the need to ensure quality and meaningful events reflective of Filipino values, culture and heritage.

In connection to this, we would like to invite your MAPEH Regional Supervisor and Division Supervisors together with the MAPEH TEACHERS, Culture and Arts Officer, School Events Specialist & Festival Directors as participants of this historical gathering of cultural practitioners in the islands of Mindanao.

The registration of this training-workshop is to be shouldered by the participants amounting to P 3,500.00 inclusive of the following: Summit Fee, Summit T-shirt, Kit, ID with sling, Certificates, Speakers Honorarium, Tokens for guests, Stage Decoration, Snacks, Meals (Lunch & Dinner only). Not included in the registration but free School Accommodation for 4 days (for reservations separate details will be posted on KMI GC) and Transportation (back and forth) shall be shouldered by the participants.

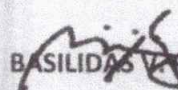

PRE - REGISTRATION of participants by clusters will start on September via Google Form.

For more queries, please contact the following persons thru: SHEILA NINIEL, KMI BOD Summit Project Coordinator & Summit Director 09970853928 & Val Lozada, KMI Pres 09164074300/09560137212.
