Attention: WARLITO E. HUA
Chief, Education Support Services Division

Dear Director Farnazo,

The National Leprosy Control Program (NLCP) of the Department of Health – Davao Center for Health Development is pleased to inform you that the Orientation on Skin Neglected Tropical Diseases (NTDs) and Tuberculosis, which was previously postponed due to the recent series of earthquakes in the region, has been rescheduled to November 19–20, 2025 (live-in) at the Apo View Hotel, Davao City.

This activity aims to enhance the knowledge and skills of participants in the diagnosis and management of Skin NTDs, with a particular focus on Yaws, Scabies, and Tuberculosis.

We are inviting 25 participants, preferably doctors and/or nurses, to represent each of the 11 divisions across the region in this important training.

Accommodation and venue will be covered by the Department of Health, while per diem and other transportation expenses of the above-mentioned participants shall be shouldered by the sending agency.

We appreciate your patience and understanding regarding the earlier postponement and thank you for your continued support and cooperation. For your immediate concerns, please feel free to contact Ms. Evelyn Uy-Gelito, NTP/NLCP Program Manager, at 09330399442 or via email at tb.lab@ro11.doh.gov.ph.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued commitment to public health.

Truly yours,
