Dear Dr. Farnazo:

We are pleased to inform you that Girl Scouts of the Philippines Eastern Mindanao Region will host the GSP 44th NATIONAL CAMP at Alano Regional Program and Training Center, Dalico, Toril, Davao City on February 13-18, 2026. The camp will bear the theme, Padayon: Girls Leading the Way to Peace and Solidarity. It is expected to be a huge gathering of 2000 girls and adults from 96 GSP Councils.

As our steadfast partner in shaping girls, we cordially invite you and deliver a WELCOME MESSAGE during the Opening Ceremony on February 13, 2026 at 5:00 P.M. We would also appreciate to have the presence of the Schools Division Superintendents of Davao Region. The presence of your team as DepEd Administrators will not only highlight the significance of the national gathering but serve as a source of inspiration for the thousand of Girl Scouts and leaders who will be in attendance. Dress code for the ceremony is Alternate Uniform for female (Dark green pants, white blouse, green vest, black shoes) and GSP Adult Black Polo with any khaki/brown jeans for men.

Further, we are also requesting for your generous support in the following concerns:

1. Approval of participation and travel of the campers, camp staff and usherettes. List is attached in this letter.
2. Approval to use the grounds of Doña Soledad Dolor Elementary School as designated parking are on February 14-16, 2026 during the three-day Mangrove Planting at the Coastal Road.
3. Request for teachers to decorate the two (2) event stage.
4. Request for Magallanes Elementary School and Daniel R. Aguinaldo National High Schools Perform to perform in the Opening and Closing Ceremonies respectively.

As host region, we are confident that we can offer the best hosting because we have your full supports in all our endeavors.

We remain committed to be your prime partner in providing leadership, values and life skills training to our young generation as they continue striving for excellence and service to others.

We thank you in anticipation of your most favorable response.

May God bless you and your utmost commitment to peace and solidarity starting with our young generation.

Very Sincerely yours,

PERCIANHA G. RACHO
