SUBJECT ENDORSEMENT OF THE 2026 NATIONAL TOOTHBRUSHING
DAY (NTD) AND SIMULTANEOUS ORAL HEALTH DRILLS
GUIDELINES

DATE January 22, 2026

The Department of Education (DepEd), through the School Health Division, formally endorses the 2026 National Toothbrushing Day (NTD) organized by the Philippine Dental Association (PDA), Inc.. This initiative is a centerpiece of the 22nd National Dental Health Month (NDHM) under the theme "Dentista'y Kaagapay sa Ngiting Walang Humpay," which aims to influence the community to prioritize oral health care in response to high dental caries prevalence rates. Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 559 s. of 2004 declaring February of every year as the National Dental Health Month, all DepEd Regional Offices, Schools Division Offices, and School Heads are encouraged to facilitate and participate in the nationwide simultaneous drills scheduled for February 2, 2026. For the detailed technical requirements and procedures of this event, please refer to the guidelines attached herein as Annex A.

The national kick-off ceremony will be held at Mabini Central School, Brgy. Pulong Niogan, Mabini, Batangas, and will be streamed via Facebook Live and Zoom platforms to ensure wide participation. All elementary schools are encouraged to conduct simultaneous toothbrushing drills at exactly 8:00 AM on the said date, employing either dry or wet toothbrushing techniques while strictly observing standard infection control protocols. To assist in the proper execution of the drill, school health personnel may utilize the official instructional video provided by the PDA.
