Dear Dr. Estacio:

Greetings of peace and harmony!

The Senior High School Basic Education Department of Cor Jesu College, Inc., through its student organization, the Environmental Advocates for Restoration, Transformation, and Harmony (EARTH) Club, respectfully requests permission from your good office to invite Senior High School students from schools outside our campus to participate in our upcoming one-day seminar entitled “Pulse of the Earth: Inner Balance, Outer Impact,” which will be held on March 21, 2026 at the Norbert Auditorium of Cor Jesu College, Inc., Digos City.

This initiative aims to deepen students’ awareness of climate change, environmental stewardship, and sustainable practices while encouraging youth participation in environmental initiatives within their communities. Through this activity, we hope to promote collaboration among schools and empower students to become active advocates for environmental protection.

This activity also supports the Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations, particularly SDG 13 (Climate Action) by promoting environmental awareness and action, SDG 4 (Quality Education) by providing meaningful learning opportunities for students, and SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals) by strengthening cooperation among educational institutions for sustainability initiatives.

In line with this, we intend to invite selected schools within the division and allow them to send a maximum of twenty (20) student participants per school. To help cover seminar materials and other related expenses, each participating student will be required to pay a registration fee of Fifty Pesos (P50.00).

In this regard, we humbly seek your approval to extend invitations to schools within the division and allow their students to participate in this educational initiative.

We sincerely hope for your support in empowering the youth to become responsible stewards of the environment. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Respectfully yours,

JUN REY D. DEQUINA, MATCC
