In the implementation of ARAL Program this End-of-Term Block, schools are advised to do the following:

- Prepare a School-Based End-of-Term ARAL Class Program considering the number of teachers available every day within September 2-7, 2026, indicating in the Program the grade level, schedule, ARAL Class (Reading or Math), learner grouping, and teacher assigned;
- Prioritize ARAL learners who most need direct teacher assistance in case not all can be accommodated by available teachers per day, based on available learning assessment/ARAL data;
- Ensure giving appropriate asynchronous activities to ARAL Learners not accommodated in the Face-to-Face ARAL Classes, if there's any, which shall be corrected/evaluated when learners come back to school during the Instructional Block; and

- d. Implement half-day face-to-face ARAL sessions within September 2–7, with the remaining half-day devoted to computation of grades, accomplishment of school forms, and other end-of-term activities.

In the preparation of School Calendar of Activities for the End-of-Term Block, schools are expected to strategically schedule their planned activities ensuring that school-wide (e.g. LAC Session), district-wide and division-wide activities interplay without necessarily sacrificing any of those.

Moreover, Division Festival of Talents (DFOT), which supposedly takes place within the End-of-Term Block, will be conducted on a Friday once guidelines from the Central Office have been made available. However, teacher-coaches are advised to do the training already, especially for those events with unchangeable guidelines based on previous year's experiences. Also, the School PASUNDAYAG, meanwhile as we transition for the implementation of Three-Term School Calendar, will not be done within this first End-of-Term Block, but it will be done during the 2nd and 3rd End-of-Term Block definitely.

For information, guidance and compliance.
