Dear USec. Escobedo,

The Lily Gokongwei Ngochua Leadership Academy was established in Ateneo de Manila University to support the development of educational leaders especially in our public education system. To support this mandate, we are pleased to invite Deped Regional Directors, Superintendents, and Principals to a workshop on Innovations in School Governance to be held on April 16, 2024, from 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM at the Blue Nest, 4/F Areté, Ateneo de Manila University.

This one-day workshop aims to:

- a. showcase Mental Health as an example of innovation in school governance
- b. Share best practices in innovation in school governance among participating school leaders
- c. Elicit policy recommendations on enabling innovations in school governance to support the goals of the Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM II)

This workshop is being conducted in partnership with the USAID RenewHealth project that partnered with the Department of Education and partner schools in developing and pilot-testing the Lusog Isip Kabataan Education and the Lusog Isip Online website for Filipino students, teachers, parents and employees. This event will showcase these to our school leaders.

May we request your assistance in inviting: all Regional Directors, 1 superintendent per region and 2 principals per region. Selected participants can register at the.lily.ateneo.edu/reg. Participation in this workshop is free but we cannot cover the cost of transportation and lodging so we hope that the sending agency can assist the participants for this part. This workshop is supported by the University of the Philippines President Edgardo J. Angara Fellowships of the undersigned.

We look forward to your positive response, as we journey in this shared task of improving the learning performance of our youth.

With best regards,

Subj: Request for Endorsement of a UPPEJA Study

Dear Vice President Duterte:

Greetings from the Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM II).

In support of the mandate of the Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM II) to undertake a comprehensive national assessment and evaluation of the performance of the Philippine education sector, the University of the Philippines President Edgardo J. Angara (UPPEJA) Fellowship Award, a legacy of Senator Edgardo J. Angara, was revived last September 2023 to conduct research on education reform based on the priority areas identified by the Commission.

Among the UPPEJA research studies, focused on enabling transformation in basic education through systems, leadership, and culture, are titled "Understanding Systems, Creative Strategies, and Enabling Leadership" by Dr. Ma. Assunta C. Cuyegkeng, Executive Director, Lily Gokongwei Ngochua Leadership Academy and "Building a Culture that Enables Transformation in Basic Education" by Dr. Regina Hechanova Alampay, Chief of Party, USAID RenewHealth.

For its methodology, the study will conduct a participatory action research workshop with the Department of Education Regional Directors, selected School Division Superintendents, and school principals.

In relation to this, Dr. Cuyegkeng and Dr. Alampay will conduct a workshop on "Innovations in School Governance" on April 16, 2024, from 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM at the Blue Nest, 4/F Areté, Ateneo de Manila.

Commission on Education

The workshop aims to:

- a. Showcase Mental Health as an example of innovation in school governance;
- b. Share best practices in innovation in school governance among participating school leaders; and
- c. Elicit policy recommendations on enabling innovations in school governance to support the goals of EDCOM II.

The workshop, hosted by the Ateneo de Manila University's Lily Gokongwei Ngochua Leadership Academy, in partnership with the USAID RenewHealth project, will also showcase the projects with the Department of Education (DepEd) and partner schools in developing and pilot-testing the Lusog Isip Kabataan Education and the Lusog Isip Online website for Filipino students, teachers, parents and employees.

Dr. Cuyegkeng and Dr. Alampay would like to invite all Regional Directors, one (1) Schools Division Superintendent (SDS) per region and two (2) school principals per region to attend the said workshop.

In relation to this, EDCOM II would like to respectfully request DepEd's endorsement on the attached letter from the UPPEJA Research Fellows inviting the DepEd RDs, SDSs, and school principals to this workshop.

For further information or clarifications your office may contact Ishadora S. Lim, Senior Research Policy Officer (spro2@edcom2.gov.ph) or through landline (5526601, local 5121).

Thank you and we look forward to your positive response.
